Visit unco.edu/one-of-us to watch Saturday tell his story.

My education at UNC was extremely valuable in getting me to where I am today.

-Mackey Saturday '07

If you've seen the Instagram logo, you've seen Mackey Saturday's work. After graduating from UNC in 2007 and working for a year as an art teacher, he opened his own design studio and eventually moved to New York City to work as a principal designer at Chermayeff & Geismar & Haviv. The design firm is responsible for iconic logos such as those belonging to National Geographic and NBC. "My path at UNC really directed the rest of my life," Saturday says.

¹Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) Program — WUE provides reduced tuition to students who are residents of one of the states participating in the WUE program (AK, AZ, CA, HI, ID, MT, NV, NM, ND, OR, SD, UT, WA, WY). Note: Students cannot qualify for in-state residency after attending UNC as a WUE student. One would need to decline WUE and pay nonresident tuition for one year before establishing in-state residency.

²This is what students pay after the College Opportunity Fund (COF) is applied to their bill, $85 per RI credit. To be eligible for COF rates, Colorado resident students should apply at CollegeInColorado.org.

³Based on UNC 19 Meals Per Week plan and Tier 2 housing plan.

A lot of my teachers pushed me to go the extra mile. That's something that has definitely prepared me for my career.

Visit unco.edu/one-of-us to watch Henderson tell her story.

Maria Henderson '12 always knew she wanted to work in the fashion industry, so while she was a student at UNC, she worked hard and completed internships, eventually landing a job in New York City's Fashion District as an ecommerce director. UNC provided her with lifelong friendships and professors she still keeps in touch with.

A photograph of Dick Monfort, owner of the Colorado Rockies, smiling broadly. He is wearing a light purple and white striped button-down shirt and is holding a white baseball in his left hand. In the background, there is a brick building with a large clock tower and the word "FIELD" in large letters on a structure above. The sky is blue with some clouds.

Visit unco.edu/one-of-us to watch Monfort tell his story.

UNC's business school is the best business school in the state, without a doubt.

-Dick Monfort '76

Dick Monfort '76, owner of the Colorado Rockies baseball club, spent 20 years in the beef industry. When the opportunity arose to get involved with the Rockies, though, he took the chance. "This really isn't a job to me, or most of the people that work here, which makes it really special," he says. He loves both his current team and his alma mater, where he serves on the board and touts the small classrooms and engaged faculty.
